Acknowledgments

During the research phase of this study many individuals and institutions supported the project in one way or another. Colleagues and friends went of their way and helped out with needed references or simply with a much needed lift to the next bus station or airport. In Turkey, I met with scholars, officials, journalists, and other people who appreciated and supported my work while thoroughly disagreeing with my views. I thank them all. I am particularly indebted to George Aghjayan, Ayhan Aktar, Aram Kaloosdian, and Ara Sarafian. The staff of many archives and libraries did their best to assist my research. Outstanding was the support I received at the 'Political Archives' of the German Foreign Office, the Armenian Assembly of America, and the Turkish Prime Minister's 'Ottoman Archives.' Prof. Rebecca E. Bryant of LSE, European Institute considerably improved the manuscript through corrections. At Bilgi University, Fahri Aral and Ayhan Aktar were instrumental in turning the manuscript into a book. The usual disclaimer applies.
